Homestay Fees and Refund Policies

*Homestay fees include the costs for the room, meals, and Wi-Fi services. For detailed fee schedule, please refer to Appendix on Page 3 of this application. The actual amount is subject to the change due to the agreement with the homestay family.

*BIC homestay contracts are for a minimum of a 6-month period and are renewable. If a student withdraws from the homestay before the contract expires, the balance of the homestay fees for the unused period is non-refundable.

*The Homestay Deposit is refundable only if the student gives notice one month before the contract expires and checks out of the homestay without causing any damage or leaving any unsettled outstanding fees.

*The Custodian Deposit is refundable only if the student either reaches the age of 18 or provides the school with a new custodian.

*When a minor student (under 18 years old) withdraws from the home without providing the school with a new custodian declaration, the custodianship terminates automatically. His/her parents will bear all the consequences resulting from the departure from the Homestay and the Custodian Deposit will not be refunded.

*The school will accept refund requests only if the Study Permit application is denied by the Canadian Immigration Authorities. After deducting the Application Fee ($200), the school refunds other paid fees. For refund, students must submit the following documents:

- Original letter of rejection from the Canadian Embassy or Consulate.
- Original letter from the student/parent of the student requesting the refund. A letter from an agent or other representative without the original letter from the student/parent is not acceptable.
